2017 Palladino • Barolo Ornato

Again with a 15% alcohol content that doesn't slip under the radar, I like the more detail-minded personality of the Palladino 2017 Barolo Ornato, in which the mineral notes are a little clearer and more precise. This is a hot-vintage expression with more sharpness than expected, along with pencil shavings and fine-chiseled contouring. Cedar spice and tobacco fill it out. About 3,000 bottles were released.
