2017 Palladino • Barolo Parafada

From one of the best sites in Serralunga d'Alba, the Palladino 2017 Barolo Parafada shows depth and lots of layering, with ripe fruit, cherry and spice. There is sweet tobacco with some mineral and red brick. The real selling point of this Barolo might be the nice, tonic and firm feel in the mouth, even though it still could be cellared for another year or two. Some 4,800 bottles were released.
