2018 Palladino • Barolo Parafada

The 2018 Barolo Parafada is one of Palladino's most celebrated and recognized wines. With fruit from Serralunga d'Alba, this is an incredibly firm and compact expression with sheer power that comes forth as black cherry, spice, rusty nail and dried rose. The bouquet offers a terrific level of depth and brawn. These wines from Palladino perform very nicely in this controversial vintage, and these are some of the safest bets for long cellar aging.
